

IPMG Professional Development Webinar: Bullying Prevention, Everyone's Responsibility - Q&A

Question	Answer
Q: Indiana's next step should be to pass bullying legislation in the workplace.	A: Adult to Adult bullying could be considered a criminal activity and should be reported. Most companies have harassment and work place safety policies.
Q: Thank you for this straight forward, much needed, look at bullying.	A: Thank you for attending!
Q: I am a new CM, how do I submit the PDW for credit?	Please check with your Professional Development Manager, she can assist you with submitting the attendance confirmation to Advocare for credit.
Q: I'm sorry that I missed most of this webinar. I got the time zone wrong.	The recording will be posted on IPMG's website at www.gotoipmg.com/resources/professional-development-workshops .
Q: Some children and it is not always mentioned is teachers bullying children that has been an issue in the school system. Verbal bullying. I feel this is not verbalized enough as some adults including professionals are not always safe.for our children.	A: Please check with your specific school district regarding their policy. Most policies are for zero tolerance regardless of age.